

83. Let's Dance — Dance Center Evanston

Delve into a variety of classes and options with a gift of dance. During DCE's 2019 summer term, take $125 off tuition from: the all-access Passport to Dance, a primary division weekly class, or an adult 10-class card. Session runs from June 18th to August 4th. DCE offers a fun, progressive curriculum in ballet, Cecchetti, pointe, tap, modern, jazz and hip hop. A wonderful present for a seasoned or brand new dancer. (Excludes camps and workshops.) Visit dancecenterevanston.com for more.

Value: $125

Donation courtesy: Dance Center Evanston

84. Joy of the Game: Hawks vs. Avalanche on February 22nd

Another chance to catch action on ice. Grab four premium seats in the Lexus Club Level section 204 at the United Center and watch Chicago Blackhawks play Colorado Avalanche. Game time: 6:30 p.m. Prize includes complimentary parking.

Value: $650

Donation courtesy: The Ghate Family

85. NU Football: First Home Game vs. UNLV

Five tickets when the Wildcats match up against the Rebels for the first home game of the season. Game time: pending upon release of the fall schedule. Game date: Saturday, September 14th.

Value: $250

Donation courtesy: The McGuire Family

86. Stay En Pointe - Evanston School of Ballet

Now in its 51st season, the Evanston School of Ballet is a classical ballet school located on bustling Central Street. High standards of teaching combined with warmth and understanding for you or your dancer. Live accompaniment motivates and inspires.

Bid on one ballet term, no expiry, for kids through adults.

Value: $350

Donation courtesy: Evanston School of Ballet

87. Studio Tour of ABC7

Glimpse the exciting and fast-paced world of broadcast journalism from Chicago's most-watched TV station. ABC7 covers news, weather, traffic and sports for the greater Chicagoland area, and is the go-to for breaking news and live streaming video. Join weekend anchor Ravi Baichwal for a behind-the-scenes studio and newsroom tour, and be there when the newscast airs live! For a mutually-agreed upon Sunday, 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. at 190 N. State Street; Up to 10 people (flexible), perfect for a special group outing or birthday party.

Value: $1000

Donation courtesy: Ravi Baichwal, anchor, ABC7 Weekend News

88. Making of a Signature Drink: Moscow Mule

More popular than the margarita. Delight in this Moscow Mule gift basket for a perfect concoction. Includes Titos, Bombay Sapphire Gin, Martini Rossi Vermouth, cocktail mix, mule mix, glasses and ginger beer. All it needs is a squeeze of lime.

Value: $250

Donation courtesy: The Buenzow Family

89. Liquor Bar in a Basket

An all-inclusive kit of assorted top-shelf and craft spirits to keep or to give. With vodka, brandy, tequila, whiskey, Kahlua and ginger beer. Comes complete with a crystal decanter, copper mule mugs, cocktail shaker, flask, bitters, recipe book, bar towels, muddler and reamer, and margarita salt. Fruit and garnishes, breadsticks and snacks keep things on the up and up.

Value: $500

Donation courtesy: The Buenzow Family

90. A Perfect Platter of Cheeses

Consider this party starter for your Super Bowl game, book club, or girls' night. Entertain with ease with a tray of high-end appetizers: perfectly-curated cheeses, pâté, olives, crackers and homemade spreads. From local catering favorite, EAT.

Value: $200

Donation courtesy: Sheila Kaminski, EAT Catering

91. Silver Bracelet from Tiffany

The iconic little blue box for your valentine. Inside sits an elegant bead bracelet and heart-shaped tag in a timeless, simple design. Sterling silver bracelet is seven-inches in length.

Value: $150

Donation courtesy: Maura Farrell

92. Foodcentric for Found / The Barn

In our own backyards: two praiseworthy restaurants — Found & The Barn — by Evanston's own Amy Morton. For classic steaks and comfort food, The Barn's nostalgic 1920s-esque setting is where to linger over perfectly-aged steaks and wine. For a moderately-priced but a no less provocative meal, head to Found where local ingredients, distillery pairings and share-worthy plates make up the menu. This elegant prize grants certificates to both.

Value: $225 ($75 gift card for Found; $150 gift card for The Barn)

Donation courtesy: Amy Morton

